The idea for 'Singing the Beatles Across India' was seeded during my visit to the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi's Ashram in Rishikesh. I'd visited beautiful Jain Temples, the exquisite Taj Mahal and the extraordinary Hindu burial grounds in India, but the tumbledown ruins of where the young Beatles meditated and wrote music left me profoundly moved.

Fittingly, it is also where the tour will conclude with a performance in the old hall. I envisage a momentous and beautiful event to conclude the event.
